

WINES OF THE MONTH

53. GRECO DI TUFO, VESEVO, 2018

From vines grown in volcanic soil near Mount Vesuvius, this is a lovely aromatic white with ripe pears on the nose, flecked with honey and almonds. The palate shows yellow peaches with a crisp mineral character. Just perfect with seafood pasta like the lobster linguine or the scallop risotto. At 12% alcohol a good choice when you don't want anything too heavy.

£32.50

54. SOAVE CLASSICO, CAMPO TO TOVI, INAMA, 2017

Think Soave to be a bit of a wishy-washy white? This should change your mind. Stefano Inama gets an amazing amount of concentration in his wines with aromas of wild flowers and honey finishing with Soave's tell-tale almond notes. Perfect with more delicate seafood dishes like the fettucine with crab or seafood salad. Just 12% alcohol.

£33.50

55. CHATEAU HAUT GRELOT, COTES DE BLAYE, 2019

Quite brilliant white from Bordeaux and made by a former winner of "best young wine-maker in France", Joel Bonneau. Mainly sauvignon blanc with just a little semillon rounding things out, this is fresh and zingy with flavours of grapefruit and white peach. Great with slightly spicy dishes like the prawn gremolata or lobster thermidor. 13.5% alcohol.

£24.50

56. BARDOLINO, CORTE GIARA, 2019

Bardolino comes from grapes growing a stones throw from Lake Garda in Veneto. Similar in style to valpolicella with crunchy black cherry fruit, this is ideal with the veal or rack of lamb or even with seafood if you prefer red wine. At 12.5% alcohol it's a good choice when you don't want anything too heavy.

£26.50

57. NEGROAMARO, IL PUMO, 2018

From the deep south of Italy, this is a rich, full bodied wine with spicy back fruits. Ideal with red meats in richer sauces like the beef Barolo or beef italiana, or richer pasta dishes like the lasagne or penne ghiottona. 13.5% alcohol.

58. MERLOT, JORDAN, BLACK MAGIC, STELLENBOSCH, SOUTH AFRICA, 2015

This is merlot at its most seductive. With flavours of red plums and chocolate enveloped in a gentle cloak of oak this is the perfect red with a simply grilled steak, the tagliata but good too if you prefer red wines with your seafood. 13.5% alcohol.
