

WINES OF THE MONTH

53. GRECO DI TUFO, VESEVO, 2019

£34.95

Grown in volcanic soils near Mount Vesuvius, this is an aromatic white with flavours of yellow peaches held in check by a zesty mineral character, finishing crisp and dry. Ideal with richer seafood dishes like the lobster linguine, scallop risotto and spaghetti marinara. 13.5% alcohol.

54. ROERO ARNEIS, ALSAIA 2019

£27.95

If nebbiolo is Piedmonte's top red variety then arneis is its top white. The best arneis is grown in the Roero region in the Langhe hills where this wine comes from. It is a full flavoured, rounded dry white with textural spicy fruit and a savoury lightly nutty finish. Try this with the champignons Rochelle, insalata di mare or either of the prawn tail dishes. It's just 12.5% alcohol so ideal when you don't want anything too heavy.

55. CHATEU DE PARENCHERE, BORDEAUX BLANC SEC 2020

£27.95

A great dry white Bordeaux made from mainly from sauvignon blanc with a little semillon adding richness and muscadelle lifting its aromas. Crisp and citrusy, this is just made for simple fish and shellfish dishes such as oysters, chancre crab, fettucine with crab, or grilled Dover sole. 14% alcohol.

56. BARBERA PASSITO FAZZOLETTO, 2017

£27.95

This wine is a rediscovery of an old tradition of using partially dried grapes to add richness and concentration. Around 20% of the grapes are left on the vine after the main harvest to sun dry and then blended with fresh barbera grapes before fermentation. A fleshy juicy red with flavours of cherries and plums and perfect with richly sauced meat dishes like the beef Barolo, spezzatino picante or beef Italiana. 14.5% alcohol.

57. IL PRINCIPE, ORGANIC NERO D'AVOLA, 2020

£28.95

This is made from organically certified grapes grown on hillsides overlooking the town of Marsala in western Sicily. This is a bright and breezy style of nero d'avola and perfect when you are looking for a lighter style red that is still full of character. With fresh cherry and blackcurrant flavours this is just made for the veal marsala, saltimbocca or chicken breast spiedini. Good too if you prefer red wines with fish. 12.5% alcohol.

58. CHATEAU COURAC, LAUDUN, COTES DE RHONE VILLAGES 2017

£28.95

The top wine from Chateau Courac and great quality at this price level. Made from mainly old vine grenache with syrah and mourvedre, it has supple sweet fruit with hints of cassis, damson and cherries with herbal notes in the background. A wine for alcohol.
